University. He takes on the role of representing both the students and the government in the case against Umar Khalid and the members of the university who are accused of sedition. Plot The trial at JNU commences, and its outcome is in dispute. Umar Khalid is accused of sedition, which may result in his death by hanging. The Justice Sehgal panel is considered to be one of the most just and fair panels. The defense advocates Ramkumar and Sadhana represent Umar Khalid and others, and the prosecution advocates Sajjan Singh and K. P. Singh represent the government. The trial commences in Umar Khalid's absence, as he has gone on a hunger strike to oppose the repression in Kashmir. The Justice Sehgal panel is impaneled, and Sajjan Singh and K. P. Singh are the two members to decide the case. Umar Khalid, together with Ramkumar and Sadhana, are accused of sedition, terrorism, and murder. The prosecution alleges that Umar Khalid incited the students to form a party called the National Students Union of India (NSUI) and to take on the government 82157476af
